

Empowerment through Public Interest Litigation

An exchange of experiences in South Africa and England

3 DECEMBER 2012, 6PM - 8PM

MATRIX, GRIFFIN BUILDING, GRAY'S INN, LONDON, WC1R 5LN

matrix
chambers

+ SECTION 27
catalysts for social justice

The focus of the seminar will be a presentation by Mark Heywood, Executive Director of Section 27, a public interest law centre that deploys a combination of litigation and advocacy to advance the rights to health care services and basic education in South Africa. Karon Monaghan QC and David Wolfe QC will follow with their perspectives on and experience of strategic litigation for social justice in England. The seminar will be chaired by Janet Kentridge.

RSVP to Annie Bargione - rsvp@matrixlaw.co.uk or 020 7404 3447.

If any of your colleagues who have not received an invitation would like to attend please contact us. If you have any special requirements please advise on booking.

