

INVITATION

24 June 2014, 07h30 – 10h00

BREAKFAST SEMINAR ON SOCIAL JUSTICE JOURNALISM

Venue: CAF Southern Africa, Studio 16, Arts on Main, Maboneng
Precinct, Johannesburg

The Eugene Saldanha Memorial Fellowship in Social Justice Journalism is a partnership between the Mail & Guardian and CAF Southern Africa. Now in its fourth year the Fellowship provides young journalists with individual mentoring and reporting opportunities at the Mail & Guardian. This seminar will focus on the critical need for media coverage of social justice issues in South Africa. The programme includes sharing of the successes of the Fellowship, personal stories of social justice activists, and touches on the effect the Fellowship is having within the Mail & Guardian's newsroom.

Reporters, news editors, features editors and others in the media who are interested in social justice issues are encouraged to attend, as are individuals and organisations working in related areas.

PLEASE SEE PROGRAMME OVERLEAF

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

Time	Content	Speakers
07h30	Arrival and Breakfast
08h00	Welcome and background to the Fellowship	Allan Wentzel, Chairman, Eugene Saldanha Memorial Fund governing committee
08h10	Influence of Fellowship on M&G newsroom	Angela Quintal, Editor, Mail & Guardian
08h20	Critical need for media coverage of social justice issues	Mark Heywood, Director, SECTION27
08h30	Questions and Discussion	Chair: Allan Wentzel
	CONVERSATIONS WITH PROMINENT SOCIAL JUSTICE ACTIVISTS:	DISCUSSION LEADERS:
08h45	Vuyiseka Dubula , Sonke Gender Justice; Chair of the board, SECTION27; board member at Corruption Watch	Moshoeshoe Monare, Deputy Editor, Mail & Guardian
	Portia Serote , Gender activist living with HIV; member of the Treatment Action Campaign Secretariat; Women's Leader of the TAC	Rapula Moatshe, current Eugene Saldanha Fellow, Mail & Guardian
09h35	Questions and Discussion	Chair: Moshoeshoe Monare
09h50	Closing Remarks	Christa Kuljian, Eugene Saldanha Memorial Fund governing committee member

TO BOOK YOUR PLACE PLEASE RSVP BY 18 JUNE TO:

charitiesaidfoundationsa@gmail.com

Parking available in the streets around Arts on Main
Security Guards on duty